

EAGLEVIEW MANOR

Come see what 15 miles looks like!

WELCOME TO EAGLEVIEW MANOR,
a stunning estate set in the picturesque Blue Ridge Mountains, between Highlands and Cashiers, North Carolina. Visitors flock from all around the country for the pure air, rolling ranges and unbelievable views – of which EagleView Manor is unequal to most in the area.

Located in the prestigious gated community of Old Edwards Club, EagleView Manor is located mid-way between the “bucolic” communities of Highlands and Cashiers.

This English manor estate maximizes relaxation. Whether you are inside the 7,800 +/- square foot three level, five bedrooms, five and one-half bath estate or relaxing on one of the many 2,000 +/- square foot outdoor living spaces, this estate offers the quality of detail for enjoyment.

This elegant estate offers a barreled ceiling in the dining room, a chef's kitchen with Wolf appliances, an English Gentleman's Club inspired wood panel office with coffered ceiling, a handcrafted spiral staircase encased with a beautiful stone turret and an arching window cascading with the rise and fall of the stairs. You'll also discover a 2,500 bottle custom wine cellar, five hand cut stone fireplaces, and an elevator, just to name a few.

With so much attention given to the visual senses and comforts in this estate, other details are often hidden in the quality of the material used to build EagleView Manor. The 150 MPH wind resistant roof and Loewen windows made in Canada, keep this home warm no matter the winter weather. The foundation of this estate is pinned to the granite below keeping it married to the mountain it was built on.

Behind the gated community of Old Edwards Club at Highlands Cove, a variety of luxury and worry free-living options await. Old Edwards Club at Highlands Cove offers a private golf club, with an 18 hole Tom Jackson designed course, a 24 hour exercise facility, heated mineral pool and pavilion area, two clay tennis courts, an outside chimney terrace and club house with large bar area featuring a variety of fine wines, and several different dining area options, both indoors and out, serving lunch, brunch and dinner throughout the week during peak season.

Between the community neighborhood, the golf course and clubhouse, and the luxury that awaits at EagleView Manor, it is easy to understand why one may never want to leave.
